Trump has instructed via twitter that the General Services Administration tasked with the peaceful transition of power from one administration to another, start the transition process ala a Biden presidency. In that same tweet, does not concede and vows to keep fighting in court, even though most if not all lawsuits have been thrown out. The legal team for Trump has sent out an email a few days ago bearing Giuliani's name in which Sidney Powell, the lawyer whom Tucker Carlson demanded evidence of voter fraud of, and was then subsequently slammed by conservatives, who have since forgotten about it, is said to not be part of the Trump legal team actually.

Speaking for myself, I get every email from the Trump campaign and my inbox has been swamped with requests for donations. The grift must go on. The Trump administration is still actively soliciting donations to fight lawsuits he is losing consistently, even though Biden has wont he election. The left was simply right on this one: the Trump cult is real. It is completely conceivable that Trump will never really formally concede, perhaps even still holding rallies, tweeting endlessly as though he were president, ultimately setting himself up for a run in 2024. Whatever the motive, you can be sure of one thing – I will be having no part in it.
